

Opening Questions

- What are current experiences working to support availability of sub-county data, e.g, community collaboratives with small area data?
- What's working? What can we learn from your bright spots?
- What are the constraints for data availability below the county level?
- How might they be overcome?